

The Good News

HELLO

We have a somewhat unique opportunity to hear a message of hope on Sunday and immediately see a tangible vision to change lives because of Jesus. What a great calling it is to serve others because of what Jesus did for us.

What are some things in your life right now that give you joy and happiness?

GROW

Read Romans 5:1-11

For many doing weekly communion is not their tradition. It is one practice that we have retained from our faith journey. Practicing weekly communion is a blessing but can become something else if we aren't careful. This practice is one of the joyful elements of the Good News.

How do you or can you keep weekly communion meaningful and not become habit?

What does "peace with God" (vs. 1) look like for a follower of Jesus?

MOVE

One of our foundational goals as a church has always been to grow. Jesus said to grow his church. That will always remain a goal for us. However, how we grow may change from time to time. By now you have heard Russ share what God has called us to do as a church.

How could partnering with Hope Center change generations for Christ?

What are some challenges, fears, or concerns you might have stepping into this new way to help these individuals and their families?

Read Romans 5:3-5

How does helping others receive what Paul talks about here grow the Kingdom of God?

Share about how the result ("God has given us the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts with his love." (vs. 5) is worth the struggle.

P R A Y

Focus your prayer time this week on our new journey with Hope Center.
